INDEPENDENCE DAY 20-21

The 74th Independence Day was celebrated virtually by the Hyderabad Public School, Ramanthapur with patriotic fervor and gaiety.

The Principal Dr. Narsimha Reddy hoisted the National Flag and addressed everyone with the Independence Day message. Patriotic poems and songs were recited by the Pre-Primary and Primary students. Senior school students delivered speeches and presented dance and skits depicting our freedom struggle. Despite the lockdown, all the students were encouraged to help instill a sense of patriotism.

REPUBLIC DAY

We, at the Hyderabad Public School, Ramanthapur congregated to celebrate the birth of the constitution of this great nation on 26th January 2020. The head girl(SSW) and the vice-captain of the primary section made inspiring and thought-provoking speeches. The students of the primary section performed a dance which depicted the pride Indian soldiers take in sacrificing their lives for the country.

The students of the primary school presented a lovely song, this was followed by a magnificent drama, a street play which was performed by the senior school students. “India Today,” highlighting many features of our Nation and many aspects of society such as the safety of women, care for the elderly, need for preservation of the environment. Last but not the least, was an elegant dance performance choreographed and performed to depict “Woman in her Entirety,” by the Senior School Students.

TEACHER’S DAY

One of the most celebrated days across all schools and colleges is the Teacher’s Day. The Hyderabad Public School ,Ramanthapur witnessed the students thanking their teachers by sending personalised ‘Thank you’ messages on WhatsApp, posted balloons ,flowers, chocolates and even red pens. The ability to relate lessons to real life examples can be done only by a teacher.. For their selfless devotion and hard work, students showed their gratitude and celebrated Teacher's Day by performing dance, singing songs and recited poems. The virtual Teacher's Day programme was filled with much cheer and happiness. Despite the pandemic, the students of the Hyderabad Public School celebrated Teachers day with enthusiasm & conveyed their gratitude to their mentors ,going online.

CHILDREN'S DAY

The Hyderabad Public School ,Ramanthapur celebrated virtual Children's Day with classical dance performances by the teaching staff . The students were regaled watching their subject teachers dance online.It also emphasises on the beauty of childhood, as the best phase of any individual's life which is filled with endless love and affection.

As children are the future of any nation and grow up to occupy various positions, they need proper guidance. It also promotes and celebrates children's rights and their welfare.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE (AFS)

The ASIA KAKEHASHI PROJECT 2020-21, a study abroad Scholarship Programme provides educational and cultural experience for the Asian High School students interested in knowing the Japanese culture.
